Holiday Gift Ideas for Animal Lovers

There's no need to worry about what to give the hard-to-buy-for animal lover on your list this year. We have some great ideas that will surely make them smile even long after Christmas has come and gone. Check out these exciting offers.

Give the Gift of Gab: Animal Communication Gift Certificates with/FREE Recording

Give the animal-lover in your life the gift of forging a deeper bond with the animals they love. Enrich their lives with an Animal Communication Gift Certificate. You have one of two choices: 20 minutes of uninterrupted joy as they communicate with the animals they love – even if some of them are on the “other side” of life – or a Recession Busting Offer of a 10 minute session. Your recipients may speak with as many animals as they wish. Both certificates come with a “How to Prepare for Your Session” letter. Our added gift to you is that we'll throw in a FREE recording of the session for your recipient to enjoy over and over.

- 20 minute session is $40 + FREE CD mailed to recipient
- 10 minute session is $25 + FREE MP3 e-mailed to your recipient.

Valid for use from 12/26/11-2012

Both come on holiday paper with matching envelope and can be sent in a variety of ways. Call Colleen for more info.

Give the Gift of Animal Nutrition

Do you have a hard-to-buy-for pet lover whose animal friend is continually sick or plagued with chronic disease? Better yet, do they have a new animal they want to learn to feed for a lifetime of health and happiness? It's scientific fact that nutrition is the basic building blocks of all life. Without it there is little hope for a long life blessed with health and vitality. Current FDA labeling laws for the pet food industry allow manufacturers to misrepresent their products as healthy and wholesome foods when in actuality they can be quite the opposite. This gift certificate will buy a consultation with Joyce at The FeedBag for Animal Wellness. Spending 20 minutes or more, they'll go over their pets' current diet, dietary needs and what high quality, nutritional foods are available to them that are both affordable and filling the specific dietary needs of the animals they love. This information is priceless, so let your gift recipient benefit from Joyce's three decades of research and education in pet nutrition. It's a gift that will last a lifetime. $30 — SALE $25 Call Joyce for more info

Communicating with Animals at a Distance

You can communicate with your animals at any distance. In fact, you can talk to your animal friends whether they are alive or not. You can learn about their wants and needs, understand any health concerns they or you might have, or receive higher wisdom at a level you may not have known existed before.

Colleen Nicholson shares decades of experience as an Animal Communicator in a down-to-earth, inspiring manner. Wayne Nicholson, Certified Hypnotist & Reverse Speech Practitioner guides you through a trance session that will boost your intuitive abilities, allowing you to share a conversation with the animal you most want to hear from now. Together they have created a powerful tool to enrich your life, and deepen the spiritual dimensions of your relationship with the animal world.

$24.95 — SALE $20

Your Secret Talent will help you uncover the incredible attributes that are unique to you alone. Everyone has talents and abilities that are as individual to them as a fingerprint. Using the MetaWalk™ hypnosis process, you'll journey to the Cavern where you will discover your Inner Light, gaze at the image most important to you at this moment in time, and finally, open the Ark that holds the embodiment of your Secret Talent. You will leave the Cavern only after completely accepting and acknowledging your talent, determined to express it in your waking life.

$24.95 — SALE $20

Combined with Communicating with Animals at a Distance, you have an incredible opportunity to open yourself to your own innate ability to communicate with animals, as well as any other secret talent you have not recognized yet, or would like to hone better.

Harry Swinedell's Hypnotic Insomnia Cure

OUR MOST POPULAR CD

Credentials: Harry Swinedell has been an Ace reporter for HolisticAnimal.com, and is a member of the fourth most intelligent species on the planet (Humans, Primates, Whales/Dolphins, Pigs). Swine are often called "horizontal humans" because of the many features our internal organs share. Most importantly, Harry has had a lifetime of sleeping 18 hours a day. Can there be a better sleep expert?

Harry will lead you through an average day by the river, culminating with a solid nights sleep. On the way you will learn something about your self image and the limiting thoughts, beliefs and emotions that stand in the way of restful sleep. Using Harry's "patented" Ore-snay Technology (Pig-Latin) sounds have been embedded in the background of this metaphoric trance journey to induce peaceful sleep.

$24.95 — SALE $20

Perfect Healing takes you to the deepest parts of your mind where you will explore the metaphoric structures of your inner being. The Wolf embodies your motivation and power. The Photo Album displays your self image, and the Whirlwind brings transformation. Entering the Garden you will meet the Healer, who instills sound and light within your body, promoting health and uncovering the simple awareness that is your true identity.

$24.95 — SALE $20

Flight uses the power of metaphor to help you rise above problems, dissolve limitations, and build the life you want. People around the world have discovered the benefits of personal metaphor restructuring during private sessions. This audio program allows you to do the same at a fraction of the cost. Why not take a flight with me? Take a brief vacation from your all of your cares and woes. Travel to the sacred mountain peaks where you will rejoin that part of you that lives above the fray, the Inner Being that has the answers you are looking for.
